22nd September 2008

Dear Friend/s

Nice to see you all for the last meeting that we had in September. We had a very interesting talk given by Lee Farmer about his climb of Everest and there were lots of questions after.

There are car parks near by and there is the main station and bus drop offs just across the road. Look forward to seeing you after a long break.

Please note that from September that we will be moving back to the Town Hall.

Date: Wednesday 1st October

Meeting Start Time: 7.30pm

Place: Old Town Hall, Reading (side entry opposite the pub on corner)

Room: Jane Austen

Our Speaker is: Maggie Tristram and she is an Epilepsy Nurse from the John Radcliffe.

Purpose of Talk: She will be talking about what the John Radcliffe does for Neurology

FUTURE DATES TO REMEMBER!

FUTURE MEETINGS –

5th November – Andy Smith from the National Society for Epilepsy

3rd December – Special School (Christmas Do Get together and raffle)
